FRIDAY: SOS Toulouse Oliver to Host Public Hearing on Proposed Administrative Rules

SANTA FE – New Mexico Secretary of State Maggie Toulouse Oliver will host a public hearing on three proposed administrative rules in Santa Fe on Friday, March 30, 2018. The proposed rules outline procedures for candidates transferring funds from one campaign finance account to another under the Campaign Reporting Act (CRA), establish the order in which statewide judicial races appear on the ballot while clarifying other ballot order issues, and make procedures for provisional voting uniform statewide.

WHAT: Public hearing on proposed administrative rules

WHO: New Mexico Secretary of State Maggie Toulouse Oliver

WHERE: New Mexico State Capitol Building, 490 Old Santa Fe Trail, Room 321, Santa Fe, New Mexico

WHEN: Friday, March 30, 2018, at 9:00 a.m.

On Friday, you can watch a live stream of the hearing by visiting the Secretary of State's website and clicking on “Watch Livestream of Rulemaking Hearing” on the homepage.
