SOS Toulouse Oliver Statement in Response to Unfounded Lawsuit Over Straight-Party Voting Option

SANTA FE – Secretary of State Maggie Toulouse Oliver released the following statement today in response to the unfounded lawsuit that was filed late last night regarding the straight-party voting option that will be on the 2018 general election ballot. The statement is attributable to Secretary of State Maggie Toulouse Oliver:

“The straight-party voting option isn’t a partisan issue, it’s an access issue. I’m committed to providing voters with as many options as possible to ensure eligible voters participate and to keep our democratic process strong.”
